Weekly Updates:

Here is a reminder of a few events that are coming up. On Wednesday, February 26th starting at 11:30 is the Grand Forks Mayor's State of the City Address and Luncheon at the Alerus Center. This required a reservation for attending. On March 4th there will be a small delegation of staff and council members that will be meeting with the MPCA down in St. Paul regarding the upcoming waste water project. Lastly on March 5th the mayor, council members Tweten and Olstad, and Mr. Murphy will be meeting with legislators and attending meetings at the State Capitol for Legislative Day.

Agenda Items

Item one will consider renegotiating a contract with Waste Management or collecting proposals from other vendors.

Item two is regarding legislative items the League is putting as priorities this year and is asking for support from cities.

Item three will consider what the council would like to set as legislative priorities for East Grand Forks.

Item four will have the council considering if they would write off an amount that has been deemed uncollectable.
