Department Update

Campbell Library – Charlotte Helgeson

The Library is closed Thursday at 1 p.m. through Friday. Proskiw Engineering will be in the library for testing to determine the deficiency of the roof. They will do a pressure test to measure air exfiltration and thermography to check temperature variations. McFarlane will be cooperating with Proskiw to manipulate the HVAC system.

Agenda Items

The consent agenda will consist of the considering the renewals of two liquor licenses, an approval of a 2am closing application, a special event license for the Cats Incredible Tournament, a temporary liquor license for that event, the replacement of overhead doors at Fire Station No. 2, and the refurbishing and repairs to 421 Rescue Truck.

Item 10 will consider adopting a resolution agreeing with the direction of the rehabilitation to the Kennedy Bridge including where the pedestrian/bike path will be placed.

Item 11 will consider the purchasing of a new bus for the Dial-A-Ride program.

Item 12 will consider another lease agreement with the MPO for renting additional space in City Hall.

Item 13 will consider adopting a resolution to vacate an alley that goes through the middle of the Riverwalk Center.

Item 14 will consider the acceptance of donations for training and equipment needed for Project Lifesaver.

Item 15 will consider the acceptance of donations for various areas in the Park and Recreation Department which includes the baseball program, the Senior Center, and the cemetery.
